Pearl Bryan's Slayers Indicted For Murder.

REQUISITION PAPERS ASKED FOR

Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling May Soon Be Lodged in Newport Jail—Now Held in Cincinnati as Fugitives From Justice—William Wood Locked Up Without Bail—Latest Developments.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 14.—There are but few additional breaks discernable in the dense cloud of mystery in which the Fort Thomas tragedy has been shrouded. The developments of the past 24 hours have been few, and of but slight significance. No fewer theories have been advanced and alleged clews brought to light than heretofore, and none has escaped close scrutiny by the authorities. Many fruitless efforts were made to follow up ideas which were thought to be based on something tangible that would lead to a satisfactory disclosure.

The Campbell county grand jury, in session at Newport, reported indictments for murder against Scott Jackson and Alonzo M. Walling. In their report they say:

"The said Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling on the day of 1896, before finding of this indictment, in the county of Campbell, Ky., aforesaid, did willfully, feloniously and with malice aforethought kill and murder Pearl Bryan, with a knife or other sharp instrument, cutting off the head of the said Pearl Bryan, so that the said Pearl Bryan did then and there die; the said Alonzo Walling being then and there present, aiding and assisting the said Scott Jackson in the killing and murdering of said Pearl Bryan, by holding the person of the said Pearl Bryan while the cutting as aforesaid was done by Scott Jackson."

The report is signed by the grand jury, as follows: J. W. Thomason, John Reed, Peter Enslen, Alex Duguid, John S. Wiegand, J. W. Schuler, John R. Willis, Frank L. Hill, M. W. Ware, James Ragan, Evan Williams, Foreman James K. Stone.

Judge Helm ordered a bench warrant issued immediately for Jackson and Walling without bond.

When the patrol wagon drove to the jail door, in Esplanade street, to take Jackson and Walling to the police court, there was a curious crowd on the sidewalk to catch such glimpse of the prisoners as could be had, as they mounted the stairway from the jail door to the sidewalk and crossed the walk to the wagon. Both were handcuffed, but they entered into no conversation, although they met for the first time for several days. They were driven quickly to the city hall, and were placed in the cells until they should be called for their hearing.

Meantime a most unusual scene was witnessed in and about the courtroom. There was a wild struggle for admission into the little temple of police justice, and all the hallways adjacent were jammed with men and women, who were unable to even look into the doorway of the courtroom. An extra detail of officers was necessary to keep the crowd from degenerating into a mob. It was a long time before the prisoners were brought up for examination, and the process was very brief.

Both Jackson and Walling were represented by attorneys. The charges preferred against the prisoners were murder and fugitive from justice. Upon suggestion of Attorney Morey, who represented Walling, the charge of murder was withdrawn and the other charge left against them. On this charge their cases were continued until the 18th inst. While the commitments were being prepared the men were returned to their cells. Sheriff Plummer of Newport will at one apply to the governor for a requisition for the prisoners.

William F. Wood, whose case was also set for hearing and who was out on bond, did not appear when called, and his bond was promptly forfeited. Subsequently he came in, and his case was continued until the 25th, and he was locked up, his bondsman refusing to go on his bond a second time. He will not, however, lose his $5,000 bond forfeited as the judge relented and released him.

The withdrawing of the charges of murder by the Cincinnati authorities, it is understood, signifies an acquiescence by the Cincinnati authorities in the theory that the murder was committed in Kentucky, and that no resistance will be made to the demand for their removal to that state for trial. It has been thought all along that the talk of lynching which has been generally regarded as likely in Newport will bring one or the other men to the point of furnishing the missing link in the chain of evidence, namely, the cabman who drove them, with their victim, to the place of murder.

PLOT TO LYNCH THEM.

Sensational Story Sprung by an Ex-Moonshiner at Muncie, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 14.—A special to The Sentinel from Muncie, Ind., says: A letter just received in this city discloses a plot to lynch Scott Jackson, Alonzo Walling, William Wood and the Gasker brothers. It says that at least 3,000 men will take part in the killing. There now lives in Muncie three families who formerly resided in the moonshiner's district of Kentucky and western West Virginia. They were members of the moonshiners' organization which it is said has over 3,000 members. Yesterday one of these men received a letter instructing the three to come to Kentucky to take part in the lynching. The letter states that the mob would be furnished with Winchester rifles; also that a paper had been secretly circulated in Newport, Ky., and 1,500 men had signed it signifying their willingness to join the moonshiners.

After Requisition Papers.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 14.—Sheriff Plummer of Newport, Ky., arrived here last night and asked Governor Bradley for requisition papers for Walling and Jackson, the young men held in Cincinnati for the murder of Pearl Bryan. The governor did not issue the papers, as he will await the return of State Inspector and Examiner Lester, who, it is thought, may have proofs that the murder did not occur in this commonwealth.

FREE COINAGE REJECTED.

The House Does Not Concur in the Senate Amendments.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—After a 10-days' debate the house yesterday, by a vote of 80 to 190, in committee of the whole, rejected the senate free coinage amendment to the bond bill, and reported the bill to the house with a recommendation to nonconcur and insist on the house bill. The strength developed by the silver men was disappointing. They had been confidently claiming over 100 votes.

Propositions were offered during the day to concur with amendments as follows: To coin the American silver product, for the retention of the seigniorage by the government, and to open the mints to the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 15 1-2 to 1 when Germany and France should have agreed upon similar action. All were defeated by large majorities. The last proposition, offered by Mr. Towne of Minnesota, mustered 53 votes, the highest number of any.

The following were among the bills introduced in the house.

By Mr. Allen of Utah appropriating $9,609 to meet the deficiency in the appropriation for expenses of the constitutional convention of Utah.

By Mr. Cummings of New York to provide six submarine boats for the navy at a cost of not to exceed $175,000 each and to be delivered within four months.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The friends of the tariff bill met an unexpected repulse yesterday afternoon, when by the decisive vote of 21 yeas to 29 nays the senate defeated the motion of Mr. Morill, chairman of the finance committee, to take up the tariff bill. The negative vote which defeated the motion was given by Democrats, Populists and four Republican senators, viz: Teller, Manfield, Dubois and Carter. The affirmative vote was entirely Republican, but its total of 21 is less than half of the aggregate Republican strength.

The urgent deficiency bill was passed. It carries about $6,000,000, a considerable increase over the bill passed in the house.

A resolution was adopted directing the Pacific railroad committee to make full inquiry into the status of the Pacific railroads.

The adjournment of the senate was until Monday.

MAPS IN THE VATICAN.

Prove Venezuela Right in the Boundary Claim.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—A special to The World from Caracas, Venezuela, says an English vessel is taking soundings at the mouth of the Orinoco river.

Maps made by Catholic missionaries early sent to South America are said to have been found in the Vatican, which prove Venezuela's claims to the disputed territory on the Guiana frontier. President Crespo has appointed Amendooro-Urdaneta a commissioner to go to Rome to study the subject. A special commissioner has been appointed to visit San Domingo and Porto Rico and to examine documents relating to Guiana.

The Venezuelan government has decided to connect Caracas with Guiana by telegraph.

Union Men Quiet.

BUFFALO, Feb. 14.—Eight hundred men employed on the Elliott square building laid down their tools yesterday and left their work. The grievance is that a subcontractor put some 35 non-union men at work yesterday morning. The union men protested and sent a request to the contractor that he employ none but organized labor. He refused to comply and the union men quit.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Heavy withdrawals of gold, presumably for the purpose of making payments on bond purchases, continue to be reported from the subtreasury at New York. Yesterday the withdrawals amounted to $1,271,600, of which $1,200,000 was in coin and $71,600 in bars. This leaves the true amount of the reserve, so far as reported, $63,664,371.

Ambassador Uhl Sworn In.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Edwin F. Uhl is now ambassador to Germany, having taken the oath of office yesterday afternoon at the department of state. He will go to his home at Grand Rapids before starting for his post at Berlin, in order to close up some private business, so that it may be about 30 days before he reaches Berlin.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 14.—John McDaniel of Pulaski county has been confined in the asylum here a raving maniac. He lost his reason through the religious excitement now going on in that section. He would stand waist deep in ice water and preach baptism.

THE FIGHT POSTPONED

Peter Maher Has Got Sand in His Eyes.

IN NO CONDITION TO FIGHT.

Martin Julian and Fitzsimmons Will Not Claim the Forfeit but Will Give Maher Ample Time to Recover—Stuart Expects to Get Concessions From the Mexican Government, but Has So Far Failed.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 14.—Now it is the eyes of Peter Maher that threatens to stop the big fight. Buck Connally, one of Maher's seconds, came rushing to Stuart's office yesterday afternoon with the information that Maher would not, because of his eyes, be in condition to fight, and saying that it would be absolutely necessary to have a postponement. He said that Maher's eyes had been so badly inflamed by sand blowing in them during his training that he could scarcely see. Stuart at once set to work to secure a postponement of the time necessary to enable Maher to get into condition.

According to the conditions of the match Maher and Fitzsimmons have each posted a forfeit of $1,000 to insure their appearance in the ring. Julian, when seen by Stuart, declined to accept the statement of Connally without verification. He insisted that Maher should come to El Paso and submit to inspection to determine whether or not his eyes were in such condition as stated by Connally. If they were, then Julian declared that Fitzsimmons would agree to the postponement and claim no forfeit. If they were not as badly inflamed as reported he would insist upon the fights taking place, and if Maher failed to appear the forfeit would be claimed.

Maher came to the city at 6:30 last night. His eyes were tightly closed and he wore a green shade over them. They were swollen almost shut and water exuded from the corners. A raising of the lids showed that the eyeballs were greatly inflamed. Maher has been training in an old adobe rink at Las Cruces. The dust was so thick when he was going through his training that visitors complained of it and warned Maher against continuing work in an atmosphere of dust. Sunday one of his eyes began to pain. Report came down that he had sand in the member, but that it would only temporarily inconvenience him. Tuesday both eyes were effected and the condition of the fighter has been getting worse until yesterday he could not see.

Maher's trouble is not uncommon in this region. Residents are not so liable to it as those who have been here but a short time. The alkali dust creates an irritation that results in blindness and much pain, but it usually passes away in a week or 10 days. An army surgeon who examined Maher's eyes yesterday said he thought he would be well in a week. Dr. Yandell, city health officer, who looked at the sufferer last night, said Maher would not be able to enter a ring for a week.

Martin Julian and Fitzsimmons were sent for as soon as Maher was placed in a room. Both examined the sufferer's eyes, expressed their sympathy for him and announced that they would not under the circumstances claim a forfeit. They will give Maher ample time to recover.

The following was posted about town last night:

"Owing to temporary affliction of Peter Maher's eyes the contest will have to be postponed a few days."

Will Dan Stuart get the concession from the Mexican government which will make the attraction of theistic carnival possible? That is the question which those who have known of the plan are asking. It is a question which the promoter is now asking himself imperturbable as Dan Stuart is by instinct and training, he maintains an unruffled front, while within he is "guessing," but he doggedly determined to bring off a prize fight of magnitude if he has to labor months to do it.

Months ago Stuart secured a concession from the Mexican authorities for a tract of land near this city. Everything was understood, but the formal papers were not made out. General Rolero Rubio, a relative of President Diaz, was then secretary of the interior for Mexico. Before the close of the deal Secretary Rubio died. That made a delay in the sending of the papers to Stuart and during that time the promoter sought Dallas and the Hot Springs. After that failure he determined on his Mexican scheme. In November General Gonzalo Cosio was appointed to the position made vacant by the death of Secretary Rubio.

Stuart has all along been working upon the belief that at the proper time the formal papers would be made out and his carnival thus assured. His latest advices have been that the concession papers would reach him this week. They are not here yet and it looks now as if Stuart must run the gauntlet of soldiers if he brings off the fight.

Stuart has at no time since the Dallas affair intended to pull off the fights in Texas. New Mexico was only considered as a remote probability, a possibility that faded after congressional action. For, while Stuart would not hesitate to bring off his events in Texas or New Mexico under ordinary conditions, he has no notion of defying the United States authorities. His interests in different sections are too great and he has no desire to flee the country.

While Stuart has been going ahead with his plans in expectancy of his Mexican grant, the secret of which he has carefully guarded, the stir in the United States has been growing apace. This has had its effect upon the Mexican authorities, particularly the action of congress. It leaked out from some quarter that there was a large amount of money to be paid for the grant, and the statement was printed that the government of Chihuahua was to receive $20,000. This reached Governor Ahumada and is the one thing to which he reverts when talking of the fight. He takes it as a personal reflection on his military record and the dignity of his office and there is little doubt that he means what he says when he declares that prize fight invaders without any distinction will be shot if they can be reached.

Dan Stuart said late last night: "I am willing to stay here a month if these men want to fight. There will certainly be a contest between the two men."

NORTH POLE FOUND.

Dr. Nansen, the Norwegian, Claims to Have Found Land There.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 14.—A dispatch from Irkutsk, Siberia, says that a Siberian traveler named Kouchchareff who is acting in the capacity of agent for Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, has informed the prefect of Kolymsk that he has received information that Nansen has reached the north pole, where he found land, and that he is now on his way back.

Mr. Nansen has made several trips into the arctic seas before and nearly three years ago started on his last voyage.

No vessel was ever so carefully designed and built for the purpose of battling with the arctic ice and endeavoring to reach its core at the north pole, and certainly no more solidly constructed or perfect description of vessel has ever before been turned out of a builder's hands for arctic service than the one finished for the use of Dr. Nansen.

The vessel was constructed on nearly similar lines to those of a Scotch buckie boat or Norwegian pilot. She is furnished with engines of about 170 indicated horsepower, powerful pumps to be worked by steam or hand power and electric lighting machinery. She also took with her a balloon to be held captive for purposes of observation, and carried seven boats—four on davits and three on skids over the main hatchway. Two of these, larger than the others, were capable of carrying the entire crew, with provisions for several months and warm tents in the event of the abandonment of the vessel.

The vessel reached the polar seas through Bering straits in midsummer. When winter came on she was purposefully frozen in the ice. Nansen's theory was that this ice would eventually move and carry him to the pole and then around to Greenland, along the line of the circumpolar current which he believed to be running.

Whether the famous explorer has realized his plans as originally laid out or whether he has made his great discovery by other methods will probably not be known until he reaches Irkutsk.

COREANS AT IT AGAIN.

This Time the Premier and Seven Officials Murdered.

YOKOHAMA, Feb. 14.—Advices just received from Seoul, capital of Corea, say that an uprising took place there on Tuesday last, Feb. 11, during which the premier and seven officials were murdered.

The dispatches add that the king and crown prince have sought shelter in the Russian legation. Twi Won Kun is also there. It is stated that the king ordered the ministers to be put to death.

A force of 200 Russian sailors and marines are now guarding the legation of that country.

(It is to be presumed that Twi Won Kun, referred to in the bulletin from Yokohama, should be Tai Won Kun, the father of the King of Corea.)

NOT GUILTY.

Verdict Returned in the Traughber Case at Russellville, Ky.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., Feb. 14.—The trial of Moses Cook, Jr., F. P. Apgar, Robert Henderson and William Proctor, which has been in progress in the Logan county circuit court for the past nine days, resulted in their acquittal.

They were charged with lynching Edwin Traughber July 15, 1894, two miles south of Adairville. Principle McGuire, colored, the main witness against the accused men, died six months ago of consumption, while confined in the Warren county jail at Bowling Green. He is the man that drove the survey for the lynchers, as claimed, and was threatened, it was said, with death if he ever revealed the secret.

Bank Cashier Short.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 14.—A. B. Williams, until recently cashier of the Traders' National bank of this city, is short $33,000 in his accounts. Mr. Williams has not been arrested. His friends are trying to make his defalcation good. He is an officer of the Second Presbyterian church, which has the wealthiest and most fashionable congregation in the city.

Vessels in Collision.

SOUTHAMPTON, Feb. 14.—The American line steamer Paris, from New York Feb. 5, sank the local steamer Her Majesty while docking here yesterday. As the Paris swung around her rudder struck the smaller vessel, sending her to the bottom. The Paris sustained no damage. All on board Her Majesty were saved.

LIMA, Peru, Feb. 14.—By Wednesday's great fire in Guayaquil, 180 houses were destroyed and 1,000 persons were left homeless.

SAVED FIFTY PER CENT.

The Winchester Democrat Thinks Fire Insurance Rates Are Too High and Tells Why.

(Winchester Democrat.)

At the first meeting of delegates to secure a reduction of insurance rates, which was held at Frankfort last week, Judge Cassidy, of Mt. Sterling, who was one of the delegates present, stated that he had a piece of property in that city, valued at $4,000, on which the local agents representing the insurance combine, wanted to charge him ninety-two dollars a year to insure same.

He went to Huntington, W. Va., and had the same amount of insurance placed upon the property in the same companies represented by his home agents, for forty-five dollars a year, a saving of more than fifty per cent. Is there any more cogent argument needed to show that the people of Kentucky are being robbed by the insurance combine?

Rheumatism Runs Riot.

When there is lactic acid in the blood, liniments and lotions will be of no permanent benefit. A cure can be accomplished only by neutralizing this acid and for this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine because Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and effectively, on the liver and bowels. 25.

Miss Schuster.

Miss Schuster, the accomplished elocutionist, gave a beautiful recital of elocution and diction at Knabe Hall. It was a most captivating event throughout.—Commercial Gazette.

We had the pleasure of hearing Miss Schuster. Her style is ever simple, not extreme either in manner or in giving of tones. She was most heartily encored.—Commonwealth.

Miss Schuster is certainly a gifted elocutionist, and the program at last week's entertainment was exceptionally fine.—The Cincinnati Tribune.

The recitations of Miss Helen Merci Schuster called for special comment; as one in the audience said, "her expression and gestures are so perfect she hardly needed words." She is an artist, and will doubtless command a high place among the exponents of the pleasing art of elocution.—From the Cincinnati Times-Star.

Miss Schuster will appear at the opera house to-night, and she will be assisted by several talented musicians, among them Mrs. George Bruce, the accomplished pianist, formerly of this city. Tickets at Nelson's.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

The recent issue of gold bonds was such an overwhelming success that it easily demonstrates the wisdom of Cleveland and Carlisle's sound money policy, and shows what confidence the nation has in gold as an investment and a basic standard of value.

Pens Another Interesting Letter From Washington City.

The C. and O.—President's Receptions. Money Question—The G. O. P. Blackburn's Fight.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10, 1896.

Oh, F. F. V. of the C. and O., it beats the devil how fast you go. O'er Old Dominion's battle field, a phantom car on tracks of steel, Around the curves you whirl and wheel, a thing of life you seem to feel. Over the mountain and down the glen, into tunnels and out again; Past craggy rocks and mighty scenes of towering cliffs and deep ravines;

With curling smoke and hissing steam, past angry flood and placid stream, With a hip, hurrah and devilish yell! and now you glide through grassy dells. On like a cyclone, a storm of fire, all clear the way for Virginia's Flyer,

Then on, and on, and on you go, till down by the waters of the Ohio; 'Tis there you speed with yellow crest, through Old Kaintuck and the sunset West; Why, bless our wings, the wind aint in it, with the Flyer going a-mile-a-minute!

What a difference there is in a trip from Washington to Maysville now and a "journey" from Washington to Maysville in the year of our Lord, 1814?

In that year, the writer's grandmother, the late Mrs. Lucretia Taylor Fox, of Dover, who was a native of Hagerstown, Maryland, made the journey from Washington, D. C., to Washington, Kentucky, in company with Chief Justice John Marshall. The entire distance was made on horseback over the Allegheny mountains, the party stopping at country taverns and camping out. In took several weeks to make the trip in those days.

Now, over the picturesque Chesapeake and Ohio railway, the distance is covered in nineteen hours, in luxurious palace cars, in perfect ease, safety and comfort. At Washington the C. and O. enters the Baltimore and Potomac station, in the very heart of the Capital, where President Garfield was shot. All trains pass over the historic but unsightly "Long Bridge," which spans the western branch of the Potomac. Then seven miles southwest of Washington, the old city of Alexandria is passed through, and the road runs within six miles of Mount Vernon, the home of Washington. Then thirty-two miles west of Washington the C. and O. runs through Manassas, where the battle of Bull Run was fought, the first fight of the rebellion. The road passes within a few yards of the monument marking the field of battle.

It is rather a singular fact that the first battle of the late war occurred on the farm of Mr. McLean at Manassas, and the closing scene, Lee's surrender, took place on his land at Appomattox.

The soil of the Old Dominion is dyed with the blood of thousands of martyrs on both sides, and the old State is held in sacred veneration by all the old veterans. At Charlottesville, Va., the C. and O. skirts the foot of Monticello, (Little Mountain) the home of Thomas Jefferson, the immortal author of the Declaration of Independence. This celebrated mansion crowning the mountain top can be plainly seen from the car window; the road passing within half a mile of it. At Charlottesville is situated the University of Virginia which was founded and planned by Jefferson.

The scenic beauty and natural sublimity existing along the C. and O. route is too well known for us to attempt a further description. It is enough to remark that the C. and O. is destined to become the main trunk line west from the Capital and its future development is certainly to be wonderfully and enormously successful.

Politics and the giddy whirl of society are holding sway and dividing honors at the Capital just now. This winter's festivities have been in rapid succession. The President and Mrs. Cleveland are outdoing themselves this season; the White House is the scene of many regal entertainments and public receptions, and is wide open with democratic hospitality. Mrs. Cleveland is an ideal hostess and a great handshaker. Hers is no up-to-date "English doncher know" shake, but the genuine and hearty American grasp, with pleasant "How do you do?" to each one. The public receptions of the President and Mrs. Cleveland generally last two hours and during that time she shakes hands with 3,000 persons, who pass as rapidly as possible. After these handshakes Mrs. Cleveland's right arm is pretty well played out and it takes her a day or two for her arm to feel in normal condition. Mrs. Cleveland seems to be the one woman on earth who knows how to smile and appear in a good humor at all times. Her smile is not affected but is inspired by natural amiability, which added to her queenly style, grace and beauty renders her at once charming to all who behold her. Many people cuss Grover, but never a word is uttered against his wife.

The President returned Saturday night from a day's sport duck hunting twenty miles down the Potomac. He brought home thirty ducks, seventeen of which he shot himself. Last week he was duck hunting at the same place, and after the day's sport his attendant counted the dead ducks and announced to the President that there were just thirteen, an unlucky number. "Yes," said Mr. Cleveland, "unlucky for the ducks."

An article in a recent newspaper stated that at home the President calls his wife "Frank." In public he refers to her as "my wife," or "Mrs. Cleveland." Once she was heard to call him "Grover," but usually she addresses him as "the President," or "Mr. Cleveland."

Will we have "four more years of Grover?" Sometimes it seems that way. Mr. Cleveland can be a shrewd politician when he wants to, and his actions at present would indicate that he is laying his wires to secure a fourth nomination. Maybe he has had enough, and like Harrison will signify to his party not to consider him in the convention. Anyhow, Cleveland will be a big factor in the Democratic convention, with Whitney as his heir apparent and logical successor. All Kentuckians will work and hope for Carlisle, and will consider him first. If the nomination goes to a Southern man, Carlisle will get it.

Maybe he has had enough, and like Harrison will signify to his party not to consider him in the convention. Anyhow, Cleveland will be a big factor in the Democratic convention, with Whitney as his heir apparent and logical successor. All Kentuckians will work and hope for Carlisle, and will consider him first. If the nomination goes to a Southern man, Carlisle will get it.

Will we have "four more years of Grover?"

Sometimes it seems that way. Mr. Cleveland can be a shrewd politician when he wants to, and his actions at present would indicate that he is laying his wires to secure a fourth nomination. TWO BALLOTS THURSDAY.

But No Senator Was Elected—The Question of Free Pikes.

The Republicans, with the aid of Poor, the Populist, forced two ballots Thursday for U. S. Senator, but there was no election. Hissem, Carpenter and Rummons refused to support Hunter, and voted each time for Holt, Bennett and Cochran, respectively.

Dr. Hunter is angry with the three deserters, and he and Senator Rummons had a lively spat at the Capital Hotel Wednesday night. A special says: "Persons who overheard the conversation could scarcely believe that the soft-voiced doctor was the principal speaker. The fact remains, however, that Dr. Hunter used some very harsh language and concluded by hurling hot defiance in the Lewis County man's teeth."

"You can bolt me and be blanketed!" he exclaimed. "I want to tell you right here that I'll be elected United States Senator or no one will!"

The special order in the House Thursday was Mr. Dinning's bill to prevent double taxation of property on which the owner may owe a part of the purchase money, and for which outstanding lien notes may be in existence. The bill provides that the owner of such property may be exempted from taxation on that part for which lien notes are out. A long debate followed, in which half of the members of the House participated.

The Senate passed the Goebel bill to prohibit railroads and other companies or corporations from carrying freight or passengers from one point in this State to another point in this State till they have become citizens or residents of this State. It was amended so as to make the penalty for noncompliance with the provisions of the bill $100 per day, instead of $1,000 for the companies themselves, and $10 per day for their employees. The bill particularly affects the Cincinnati Southern and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroads.

The Committee on Education reported favorably a bill which it had originated, providing for a State Board of Examiners to examine applicants for County Superintendents and also providing for a special county tax levy of five cents on the hundred dollars to increase the county library fund.

The advocates of free turnpikes have agreed on a bill to cover the question and it will soon be introduced and take the place of those now pending.

FINANCIALLY EMBARRASSED.

Mr. Joseph F. Walton Executed a Deed of Trust Yesterday to Mr. Charles T. Calvert.

Mr. Joseph F. Walton, of Germantown precinct, made an assignment yesterday afternoon to Mr. Charles T. Calvert, for the benefit of his creditors. The deed of trust does not give the assets and liabilities. The assignor will file a schedule of these within five days, as the law requires.

Mr. Walton's many friends regret to hear of his financial troubles, and hope that he may soon be on his feet again. He is one of Mason County's best and most reliable and popular farmers and traders. He has been carrying a tobacco debt of $11,000 for a number of years, and this, together with the prevailing hard times, especially among our farmers, caused the failure.

The exemptions allowed by law are reserved, but with this exception all his property of every kind is transferred to the trustee for the mutual benefit of all his creditors.

Mr. Calvert qualified as assignee, with James N. Kirk and Thomas J. Winters as sureties.

The C. and O.'s Record.

Mr. C. B. Ryan, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the C. and O., has just completed a statement of the schedule of the running of that road the last few months. During the month of December the F. F. V. train was late but three times, once an hour, and twice about twenty minutes each. During January the F. F. V. ran into New York behind time but twice, each time about thirty minutes late. The train makes each day 900 miles from Louisville to New York, or during the month of January the train covered 27,900 miles, with a deviation of seventy-five minutes from the scheduled time. Taking Jules Verne's record around the world the train could have covered the distance without the loss of a single minute.

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

It Has Cut a Very Prominent Figure in the Development of Journalism.

[Exchange.] The remarkable growth and development of journalism in the last fifteen years has outclassed that of any other trade or profession. Since 1882 the number of newspapers has increased two-fold. They are three times as good, and their circulation is three times as great. The American Press Association, a corporation which supplies the country newspapers with the news of the day, deserves the credit for this wonderful progress. This association supplies reading matter, produced on thin metal plates, convenient for transferring from one point to another.

Previous to 1882 the country editor was handicapped by the expense of setting type for his paper. In all well-regulated newspaper offices the amount of news matter printed must increase in a certain proportion to the amount of advertising. In 1882 the limit was reached; publishers were confused as to how they could furnish the necessary extra amount of news without incurring heavy expenses. At this trying period relief came in the shape of the formation of the American Press Association, prepared to furnish the news of the day in plates of a column in length which could be bought by any morning or afternoon paper. The association also furnished articles on a wide range of subjects, written by specialists and covering every topic in the newspaper field. This enabled the country publisher to print not only all the news, but sentimental, dramatic, sporting and religious articles and stories, the products of the brightest minds of the day. For instance, no country paper could afford to pay Rudyard Kipling $1,000 for a story, but 1,000 country newspapers could afford to pay $1 apiece for his story, set up, stereotyped and ready to print. This corporation buys a story from Kipling and then retails it to country papers at a small price.

What was supposed to be a menace to the onward progress of journalism was thus overcome by the formation of this association. During the last year it has set in type more than three hundred newspaper columns of matter per day, and has supplied 8,000 newspapers with news matter in plates ready for use.

THE Postoffice Department has issued a fraud order against A. D. Powers, of Owensboro, Ky., son of the Collector of Internal Revenue for that district, barring him and the company which he represents, the Industrial Publishing Company, from the use of the mails. GEN. WEYLER'S C. NEWS.

A Number of Engagements in Which the Insurgents Were Defeated.

HAVANA, Feb. 14.—A squadron of civil guards and 18 regular cavalrymen, who were assisting a gang of men engaged in repairing the telephone line at San Felipe, south of this city have been attacked by an insurgent force, estimated to number 1,400 men under Castillo. The insurgents came from the direction of San Antonio De Lasvegas. The firing lasted for one hour and a half, but when the insurgents retreated only three of them were killed and 15 wounded. Only one soldier was wounded.

A column of troops from Guara, escorting a repair train and headed by a pilot engine, has been attacked by a heavy insurgent force, which tried to surround the troops and burned the Cardenas bridge. Five insurgents were killed and many were wounded during the engagement. The troops also captured 27 saddled horses. The loss of the troops was insignificant.

General Antonio Maceo, according to information received here, was seen moving on Tuesday in the direction of Cayajayabos, a town situated on the narrowest part of the island, in the province of Pinar del Rio, and near the military line drawn across that part of the country. Maceo, it appears, was between Artemisa and Cayajayabos and a portion of his forces was reported to be advancing in the same direction between Cayajayabos and Guanajay, to the north of the latter place.

Orders have been given to the cruisers along the coast to be especially vigilant in view of the sailing of Generals Marin and Navarre.

It was made up of Cubans from this city, New York and Boston. A steamer which the Cuban leaders here call by the name of Englewood, sailing from Nova Scotia, is the vessel.

The towboat Raymond Horner recently made the run from Pittsburgh to Louisville in exactly four days, with fourteen barges. She never stopped her wheel from the start until she pulled into Louisville.

The Pittsburg and Cincinnati packets are preparing for a good passenger business this summer, and if the water holds out will probably break the record for carrying people. There will be but three boats in the line, Hudson, Keystone State and Virginia.

The new Virginia is to have condensers placed aboard of her within a few days. At present she consumes about 3,500 to 4,000 bushels of coal on a trip. It is expected that with the condensers she will be able to make more steam and save at least half the coal that she consumes at present on a trip.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

TWO BALLOTS TAKEN.

Still the Senatorial Contest in Kentucky Is Undecided.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 14.—Just 136 members answered at rollcall in the joint assembly yesterday. Sixty-nine votes were therefore necessary to a choice for senator. Hissem, Republican, of Campbell, voted for Holt; Carpenter, Republican, for Bennett; and Rummons, Republican, for Cochran. The ballot resulted: Blackburn, 68; Hunter, 64; scattering, 9.

By a vote of 68 to 68 the joint assembly refused to adjourn, and proceeded to take the 20th ballot for senator. The object of the Republicans in refusing to adjourn was to stay in session and wear out Senator Ogilvie, Democrat, who looks feebler than usual when brought into the convention hall. The ballot for senator resulted in no change.

Took Oxalic Acid.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 14.—John J. Klipp, harnessmaker and merchant, took oxalic acid yesterday at his store, and but for immediate medical attention the dose would have been fatal. His condition is serious, but recovery is probable. His partner, Charles E. Biggers, has been trying to sell out, and Klipp worried over the possible change of the firm and dull business prospects. Starting poor, Mr. Klipp has, by economy and industry, become well fixed financially, and his rash act was entirely unexpected.

River News.

Hudson due down to-night from Pittsburgh.

Rain was reported at all points above Thursday.

The Sherley is to-night's packet for Pomeroy. The Bonanza will pass down from that point.

The towboat Raymond Horner recently made the run from Pittsburgh to Louisville in exactly four days, with fourteen barges. She never stopped her wheel from the start until she pulled into Louisville.

The Pittsburg and Cincinnati packets are preparing for a good passenger business this summer, and if the water holds out will probably break the record for carrying people. There will be but three boats in the line, Hudson, Keystone State and Virginia.

The new Virginia is to have condensers placed aboard of her within a few days. At present she consumes about 3,500 to 4,000 bushels of coal on a trip. It is expected that with the condensers she will be able to make more steam and save at least half the coal that she consumes at present on a trip.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
